BAPTISM

Congratulations to the following child who was baptized in our parish recently.

Jesse Chiziterem, son of Patrick Anyanwu and Sandra Chinonso

(godfather: Andy Osuagwu godmother: Theresa Osuagwu)

Welcome to the newest member of our Christian community! Pray that this child may be constantly renewed by the life of the Spirit that dwells within him.

Reflection: Today we fix our gaze on Jesus Mary & Joseph as a model for every family where parents work hard, help each other, understand and accept each other. They bear witness to this responsibility by creating a home where tenderness, forgiveness, respect, fidelity and a life of service becomes a rule. Joseph is a model for all fathers; he protected and provided for Mary and Jesus.

Mary also played her role by providing the maternal love for Jesus. In a family, if each member plays their role well, the family grows. If the husband loves his wife and children, he wins favour. If the mother respects the father and nurtures her children, the home becomes a better place. If the children obey and respect their parents, they are blessed. A good home is a place where children are educated and brought up with love, fear of God, sincerity, dignity and authenticity. 'God's Word, Daily Reflections 2024'

Dear brothers and sisters in Christ;

As we enter into advent and this most blessed season of Christmas many of you may be thinking of Christmas gifts for your friends and family. We would like to invite you to offer the precious gift of prayer. What better way than to offer up a mass for the special people in your life. Not only will a mass be said for them, you will also be reminding them of your faith in our Lord Jesus Christ.

Mass request envelopes are available at the entrances of the church or you can contact the parish office.

Mass intention cards are available, if you would like to include them in your Christmas cards.
