Reflection: Today's readings mandate us to make changes in our hearts; rearranging 'furniture' of hate, unforgiveness, sinfulness, rifts, anarchy and discord in the 'living room' of our hearts (1Cor 6:19), in order to make room for the coming of the Messiah. Today's first reading announces that God is ready to display the splendor of the Messiah to all nations. Paul challenges us to discern what is of value – the change on the inside and to order our priorities aright, by remaining steadfast in good works. Advent brings to our consciousness how the 'valleys of our shortcomings and sins of omission' shall be filled in, 'the mountains of our pride and arrogance' shall be made low, 'the winding roads of our crooked ways' shall be straightened, and 'the rough ways of our bad manners and ill behaviour' shall be made smooth. 'God's Word, Daily Reflections 2024'

On the Second Sunday in Advent, we remember that John the Baptist helped people to get ready for the coming of Christ by baptizing them and telling them to ask for forgiveness for their sins.

Pray with our children for the courage to be like John the Baptist and to do the difficult things that God asks us to do.

Dear brothers and sisters in Christ;

As we enter into advent and this most blessed season of Christmas many of you may be thinking of Christmas gifts for your friends and family. We would like to invite you to offer the precious gift of prayer. What better way than to offer up a mass for the special people in your life. Not only will a mass be said for them, you will also be reminding them of your faith in our Lord Jesus Christ.

Mass request envelopes are available at the entrances of the church or you can contact the parish office.

Mass intention cards are available, if you would like to include them in your Christmas cards.

Christmas Flower Memorial Envelopes...

Can be found in your collection envelope box or at the entrances of the church for you to use. Donations are used for Christmas Flowers in memory of your loved ones. A list of names will be published in the December 22nd, Christmas Bulletin
