When we do things that hurt other people God encourages us to seek forgiveness and to try to do better. Like the father in today's story of the Prodigal Son, our God will always welcome us back.

Pray with our children for the grace to say "I'm Sorry" and "Please forgive me" and to forgive others in an effort to bring God's love and peace back into the world.

GOOD FRIDAY FAMILY PROMOTION BY FR BRIAN McKEE KNIGHTS OF COLUMBUS COUNCIL 1387

Attendance at the Good Friday Liturgy of the Lord's Passion and Death has been in decline in many parts of our country; but we can change this! All Knight of Columbus should plan to attend his parish's liturgy on Good Friday, April 18th bringing wives, children and friends along. Invite other families in our parish to do the same. It is all too easy to look away from the harsh reality that Christ suffered agonizing pain and died on the cross for us. However, our faith — and that of our families and parishes — is strengthened when we take the time to meditate on his Passion and Death. So, this Good Friday, attend the liturgy with your family and transform your parish today.

Reflection: St. Augustine sees in the making of the mud paste a metaphor for the Incarnation:

the divine power mixing with the earth, resulting in the formation of a healing balm. The healing of the man is a representation of Christianity as a way of seeing. Jesus makes a mud paste, which he then rubs onto the man's eyes, and instructs him to wash his eyes in the pool of Siloam. His sight was restored. All except the Pharisees are amazed. They accuse the man of being naïve and the healer, a sinner. With simplicity, he responds: "If he is a sinner, I do not know. One thing I do know is that I was blind and now I see." This is exactly what everyone who encounters Christ says. With the ointment of God-made flesh rubbed onto our eyes blinded by sin, we come again to see. 'God's Word, Daily Reflections 2025'

We are now able to offer a daytime Alpha which will hopefully help parents of school aged children to attend and those who are not available in the evening. The start date is April 8th at 9:30am to 11:30am in the Memorial Hall. Remember that the Alpha program is a safe place for those who do not know Christ, are struggling with their faith or estranged from the church. If you know someone who might benefit, we ask that you pray for them, support them and encourage them to join the next Alpha session. Please contact the office to register or for more information.
